

meter data management

MDM is the complete smart metering platform for managing consumption data, metering points and connected units. The module integrates in single place metering data from different sources (eg. AMI and manual reads) and estimates blank values.

 lerta

www.lerta.energy